One of the members acts as Dean, whose duty it is to keep the Minutes of the Faculty, to arrange the examination of the candidates for graduation, to conduct the business of the Faculty at their meetings, and to attend to correspondence.

The Session for the Medical Lectures begins early in October, and ends early in March ensuing.

The Commencement for conferring the Degree of Doctor of Medicine, is held by a special mandamus of the Board of Trustees, during the month of March.

The following are the Rules in force in relation to the Degree of Doctor of Medicine:—

I. The candidate must have attained the age of twenty-one years, have applied himself to the study of Medicine for three years, and been, during that time, the private pupil for two years, at least, of a respectable practitioner of Medicine.

II. The candidate must also have attended two complete courses of the following Lectures in this Institution:—

Theory and Practice of Medicine,
Anatomy,

III. Medical students who have attended one complete course in a respectable Medical School, where the attendance on two complete courses is necessary to a degree, where the same branches are taught as in this, and which is placed upon the ad eundem of this school, are permitted to become candidates by an attendance here for one full course; the rules of graduation being in other respects observed. They are also exempted from the payment of fees upon attending a second term.

IV. When a candidate applies to the Dean for admission, he must exhibit his tickets to prove that the above rules have been complied with.

V. The candidate, at the time of his application, must deliver to the Dean of the Medical Faculty, a Thesis, composed by himself, on some medical subject. This Thesis is referred to one of the Professors, who shall examine the candidate upon it, and make his report thereon to the Medical Faculty.

VI. When a candidate is rejected, his essay will be retained by the Medical Faculty.

VII. The essay must be in the candidate's own handwriting, and must be written uniformly on letter-paper of the same size, the alternate pages being left blank.*

VIII. Bad spelling in a Thesis, or evidences of a want of literary culture, will preclude a candidate from examination for a degree.

IX. A Thesis may be published by the candidate if he desire it,

* The essay should be written upon Thesis paper. This is for the purpose of convenient binding together into volumes. It is recommended to the candidate to prepare his thesis before the commencement of the second course of lectures.

the permission of the Professor by whom he was examined thereon being first obtained; but no alteration shall be made in such thesis without the consent of the said Professor.

X. The voting on the case of each candidate is by ballot. Candidates who have not been successful upon a first examination, will be permitted to have a second, when all the classes have been disposed of by the Faculty. The second examination will be conducted in full meeting of the Professors.

XI. The candidate shall pay the fees of graduation at the time of his examination, or before receiving notice of his success; his name may then be entered on the Register of passed candidates, for the purpose of being reported to the Board of Trustees and included in the mandamus for a Degree.

XII. Candidates who have passed their examination, and in other respects complied with the regulations, are to be reported by the Dean to the Provost, who will communicate such report to the Board of Trustees, in order that, if approved of by them, their mandamus be issued for conferring the Degree.

XIII. The Degree will not be conferred upon a candidate who absents himself from the Public Commencement, except by special permission of the Medical Faculty.

XIV. Graduates of Medical Schools, on the ad eundem list, by attending one complete course in this Institution, and complying with the above regulations, are put upon the same footing with students who have attended two complete courses here; that is, they may present themselves as candidates for graduation: also, if they attend a second time, the tickets will be free. Such graduates, if of five years' standing, are permitted to attend the course of Lectures, upon a general ticket of admission, free of expense, except the cost of the matriculating ticket. But this general ticket does not qualify for graduation.

For the accommodation of such patients as require it, the Faculty have provided two Surgical Wards, and proper attendance within the college building.

The Dispensary of the University, which is open throughout the year, affords an opportunity to the class of examining patients, and those who avail themselves of it, will find it a valuable addition to their means of clinical instruction.

Regulations, etc.

OF THE

LAW DEPARTMENT OF THE UNIVERSITY OF PENNSYLVANIA.

It is the design of this Department to aid in preparing gentlemen for admission to the Bar, and, also, to offer to those who have not the Bar in view an opportunity of acquiring knowledge in any one or all of the branches of legal learning. The Conveyancer and the Merchant may attend, with profit, the particular lectures appropriate to their respective pursuits.

By late Rules of the District Court and Court of Common Pleas of the County of Philadelphia, the time occupied in this Department is considered, with respect to admission to the Bar, as equivalent to a like term of regular clerkship in the office and under the direction of a practising Attorney. And persons admitted to practise in any Court of Common Pleas or District Court of the State, if they are graduates of this Department, are admitted, at once, to the Supreme Court. It is believed that admission to the Bar in Philadelphia will entitle to admission in any part of Pennsylvania, and in many other States of the Union.

Gentlemen can study in their own rooms, or in a room at the University provided for that purpose.

The Professors do not presume to embrace in their course the peculiar laws and rules of procedure of all parts of the Union. Their design is so to discipline and prepare the mind by instruction in the principles of jurisprudence and their application in Pennsylvania, that other local codes can be acquired with facility and advantage. The foundations of the laws of most of the States are the same.

Students may matriculate at any stage of their professional preparation.

Students are not examined for matriculation, nor is it possible to require, peremptorily, a college degree, or any previous line of study. This must be left to circumstances, to the views of the student, and to the influences which control him.

Instruction is conveyed by lectures, and by books and portions of books upon the subjects of the lectures, which are recommended by the Professors. The students are frequently and carefully examined. Moot courts are held, at which questions are argued. And the Law Academy of Philadelphia, an institution of long standing, to which not only students, but many practising lawyers belong, gives opportunity for debate and argument which has been found of the greatest practical advantage. Exercises in writing legal essays and opinions form part of the course.

There are two terms each year. The first term begins on the first of October, the second on the first of February. Each term continues four months. From the first day of June to the first of October is vacation. The course is so arranged that a student entering at the commencement of any October term will complete his term of study in two academical years.

Students who have attended four consecutive terms with each Professor, may, upon the recommendation of the Faculty, proceed Bachelors of Law.

Students who have attended any one or two of the Professors only, may receive from each Professor certificates of proficiency.

The fee to each Professor is ten dollars for each term of four months. No matriculation fee is required.

In all cases where a student is a proper object for such indulgence, he will be allowed to attend the lectures without charge.

Those who have received the degree of Bachelor of Laws, may attend all future lectures free of charge.

Arrangement of the Course.

The apartment in the University occupied by the Board of Trustees, and the apartment adjoining it to the westward, are appropriated for the reeeption and arrangement of the Library, and as a Reading Room.

The Library is open for not less than two hours daily (Sundays exeepted), for the use of the Students, Professors, Trustees, and Alumni of the University, and all persons connected with instruction in the several departments.

Conneeted with the Medieal Department is the Wistar and Horner Museum. Tiekets of matriculation in that Department entitle those holding them to admission to the Museum. The Museum is open on Wednesdays and Saturdays of eaeh week, throughout the session.

The private Cabinets of the several Professors in the Medieal Department are likewise open to the students, at convenient hours.
